

First Conditional

IF + PRESENT + FUTURE

Affirmative

If Mary doesn't compare herself with her friends, she will be happier.

Negative

If Mary compares herself with her friends, she won't be happy.

Interrogative

How will Mary feel, if she compares herself with her friends?

USE: We use an if-clause to refer to a possible future action.

A) Complete the sentences:

- You will be ill if you _____ (eat) so much.
- If you wait he _____ (come)
- If you _____ (ring) the bell, the servant _____ (come)
- If the children _____ (be) good, they can stay up late.
- If the beggar _____ (ask) for money, you _____ (give) him some.
- If you _____ (buy) that big house, you _____ (need) a lot of money.

C) Put the words in the right order and make any necessary changes to the verbs.

- She / Susan / you / if / see / to / speak / you /
- _____
- He / it / if / come / be / nice / very
- _____
- You / be / ill / if / not go / you / school / to
- _____

